October 10-12, 2019

Welcome to MAM 2019
Omaha, Nebraska

See you in Omaha in 2019!

Conference Theme:

Developing the Whole Professor in Order to Change the Organizational World

The theme of the 2019 MAM meeting was inspired by a conversation with a colleague. He was expressing that we need to be scholarly teachers as well as research scholars. I added that we also need to serve our profession, our university, our college, and our department. As we talked the phrase Developing the Whole Professor continued to cross my mind. Later as I sat looking at the phrase typed on my screen I realized the reason we have to develop the whole professor is because that is what allows us to change the organizational worlds through our teaching, our research, and our service.

Submission Deadline:
July 1, 2019

Please plan to attend the MAM's 62nd annual meeting in Omaha, Nebraska. We welcome your research papers, symposia proposals, professional development workshop proposals, case studies, theme showcases, poster sessions, and other creative works at this 2019 event.

Want to Get Involved?

To ensure the conference's success, we are requesting volunteers for various roles (e.g., networking, organizing events, chairing sessions, conducting workshops, facilitating discussions, submitting/reviewing papers, etc.). If you are interested in serving, please let us know and feel free to suggest the role you would like to have to make this a memorable conference. Thank you!
